ABOUT RACING DATES.

The annual meeting of the American Turf Congress will be held in this city Wednesday, September 20. Outside of the usual routine business of such meetings no intimation of important measures to be considered conducive to the welfare of the western turf has been given publicly by any one competent to speak concerning probable legislation.

A dispatch from Detroit to the Cincinnati Enquirer of Wednesday gives, however, some information, alleged to have been secured from gentlemen who represent two associations that are members of the congress, "to the effect that at the coming meeting a move will be made to have the congress allot dates for next year to the various tracks that make up that organization. Not only will such a proposition come up for consideration at the meeting of the congress, but more, it will have earnest and vigorous support. There is every reason to believe that a majority of the members of the organization will favor a return to the circuit arrangement of race meetings."

This is interesting if true and it is to be hoped that it is true. The crowding out of the Nashville, Lexington and Oakley tracks is one of the disagreeable features incident to the conditions that have governed racing in the west of late years, and their practical extinction is a direct blow to the general welfare of the western turf. If the representatives of the organizations composing the American Turf Congress could be brought to consent to the allotment of racing dates by a committee of the congress the consequences could hardly fail to be highly beneficial.

The person who sent the dispatch in question, however, unwarrantably assumed a good deal when he said:

"Under the circumstances it could hardly be wondered at if the St. Louis club should fight against any measure that would necessitate a considerable reduction in their racing season from the ninety days now allowed by the state laws. With the proposed circuit arrangement St. Louis, while racing, would have the field to itself as far as the west is concerned, instead of having, as is now the case, opposition throughout its entire season. All the good stables and all the western bookmakers would be at the Fair Grounds meeting instead of being scattered as under existing conditions. With, say thirty books in line each day of racing instead of a dozen or fourteen, and with the still greater crowds that it is reasonable to suppose would be drawn to the track, when all the good horses in the west would take part in the racing, the average daily profits of the association would be even greater than at present. It would probably be a difficult matter, though, to convince the St. Louis people that they could do as well on the season as now, and unless they can be made to believe that, their opposition to any legislation in the Turf Congress looking to a change in existing arrangements, as far as they are concerned, is to be expected.

"What has been said with reference to the probable attitude of the St. Louis Club as to an allotment of dates by the Turf Congress may be applied to the Chicago associations. The immediate profits of the associations in the two big western cities might be lessened if their racing season were shortened, as would necessarily be the case with the proposed circuit arrangement, and though the betterment of the game at other points might and doubtless would eventually tend to their benefit, it need not be expected that their representatives will look beyond the present if the matter of taking turf's ever comes up for consideration by the Congress."

When the question comes up, if it does, the St. Louis Club and the Chicago Clubs, through their representatives, will probably be found ready to go as far as any of their associates in the direction of unselfish legislation for the general good of the turf. It will not be necessary for them to sacrifice any important material interests in order to bring about an equitably arranged order of dates. Concessions here and there would doubtless have to be made, but they would have their compensations. A committee of competent men, given time to consider the situation of each club, vested with the full authority of the Turf Congress, and assured of the cordial co-operation of the clubs, great and small, can easily make up a schedule that will cover the legal racing season in a way to give all a fair show and to certainly increase the profits and prosperity of each and every member.

CALIFORNIA TURF JANGLING.

From San Francisco comes the report that the California Jockey Club will inaugurate racing September 21, more than a month in advance of the opening date last year. Precisely why is not clear, although it is given out, whether by authority or not is not apparent, that it means that the California Jockey Club will race on continuously regardless of the plans of the newly organized racing body formed to take the place of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club. If this is correct it means a race-track war similar to that which for a time wrecked racing in Chicago.

Last year, as is well known, the California and Pacific Coast Jockey Clubs divided time harmoniously and enjoyed a highly successful and prosperous racing season. Last spring the San Francisco Board of Supervisors passed an ordinance that had the effect of closing the splendidly equipped Ingleside track, the Pacific Coast Jockey Club finishing its meeting on the track of the California Jockey Club at Oakland. After the close of the San Francisco racing season a new organization under the name of the Western Turf Association was formed which purchased a location for a new track at or near San Bruno in San Mateo county. It is understood that the track and buildings are now nearing completion and "General Manager" F. H. Green has given formal notice that the first meeting over the new course will begin Monday, November 6. Mr. Green was secretary of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club which would lead to the inference that at least a part of the capitalists who own the Ingleside course are backing the new venture but no statement on that point has been issued. On the surface it now seems that the California Jockey Club does not regard the Western Turf Association with favor and does not propose to divide time with it as it did with the Pacific Coast Jockey Club.

There is one feature of the turf situation in California that is worth consideration. That is the possibility that the Board of Supervisors may repeal the ordinance that was so disastrous to Ingleside. Indications of a partial willingness to do so have not been lacking on the part of some of the members who voted for it, and it may be brought about. In case such action is taken it seems probable that the immediate effect would be to render the new track in San Mateo county worthless. Further developments will be awaited with interest on the part of turfmen who have meant to take part in the winter campaign on the coast.

CALIFORNIA NOTES.

An effort is being made to induce Mr. O'B.

MacDonough to exhibit his famous horse Ormonde at the State Fair this year. If there is an animal in the United States that the public desires to see it is the great "horse of the century." Comparatively few Californians have seen the unbeaten champion, he having been kept at his owner's Menlo farm since being brought to this state. It is a foregone conclusion that should he be taken to Sacramento he would easily be the leading feature of the exposition, and it is to be hoped Mr. MacDonough will permit him to be sent there.

John Humphreys will have charge of the betting ring during the Oakland meeting. He will put on several books. There are a goodly number of horses on the grounds being prepared for the coming events.

There is considerable sickness among the horses at Sacramento. Distemper seems to be the prevailing disease. Lady Ashley, a mare which Tom Griffin brought here, is dying from it. Flashlight is also in very poor health.

The Directors of the State Fair will offer a trophy valued at $400 to be contested for by amateur jockeys. The race will be at a mile on the flat. Arrangements for the race are being made under the direction of Walter Hobart. A cup will also be offered for a hurdle race for ponies.—Breeder and Sportsman.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The meeting at River-side Park, Joliet, Ill., is so nearby that it is worth the attention of local turfmen. It extends from September 12 to 15, inclusive, with four races for the runners each day. With free entrance, grain, hay and straw, owners of the many horses here that have but scanty chance of winning can well afford to take in the purses at Joliet.

Eugene Leigh has returned to Sydney Paget the money bonus paid in the recent exchange of jockeys. The deal is off, as Clawson refused to be traded without having a say in the matter.

E. D. F. Wallace, Ind.—Racing at St. Louis ends for this year Saturday next. It will continue in Chicago until November.

I. R., Chicago.—Place odds on Tenby 1 to 2.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It has been definitely decided to have the Newport meeting begin Monday, October 30, and continue eighteen racing days, the meeting thus coming to a close November 18. The date for the wind-up of the meeting, however, is contingent upon that for the beginning of the New Orleans winter racing season. If the Crescent City meeting is to begin November 23, then Newport will close on the date named. In the event that the New Orleans meeting is not to begin until November 30, the Newport meeting will continue about a week longer, providing weather conditions permit. At the spring meeting Jackson Smith will be presiding judge, and Colonel Henry Queen will be associated with him. Who will be the other judge has not been decided, but in all probability it will be a gentleman new to the position as far as the Cincinnati tracks are concerned. A selection will not be made until within a few days of the time for the beginning of the meeting. Jake Holman, well and favorably known to Cincinnati racegoers, will handle the flag.

The New York Sun of Tuesday says: "The great Fatality candidates are nearly all quartered at the Long Island racecourses, most of them at the Sheepshead Bay track the scene of next Saturday's great struggle. Many of the large stables arrived from Saratoga yesterday. James Rowe showed up at the Sheepshead Bay

HARLEM RACING.

Yesterday at Harlem the crowd got up and howled like so many dogs over Judge Hamilton's decision in the third race. He placed Gold Fox, who won by a lengthy neck, first, but those who had bet on Bishop Reed, thought he had won and took exception to the "Colonel's" decision.

All this noise was raised simply because Gold Fox was on the extreme inside and Bishop Reed was away on the outside. This made a bad angle for those who were not directly under the wire to see and they unreasonably thought the horse on the outside had won. That Bishop Reed was the best and should have won is beyond a doubt, but jockey Mitchell, who rode him, threw the race away. On the stretch turn he was far in front but he foolishly went to the whip. This had a tendency to make the Bishop bear out and in doing so he lost a lot of ground and also plenty of room for Gold Fox to come up on the inside. Knight, on the latter, took advantage of this, and coming with a rush, he beat Bishop Reed by almost a half length, but when his number was hung out the crowd surged violently around the judges' stand and for an instant a riot looked possible. Capt. Forsee, however, was "Johnny on the spot" and soon dispersed the crowd and also quieted the noise.

The way in which Sam Fullen won the three-quarters race for two-year-olds won for him many new friends. This colt did not carry much weight, but he set his own pace and stepped six furlongs in 1:14 without the least bit of trouble.

George H. Ketcham, who belongs to one of the Foster Brothers, cleverly won the first race from Bitter Root and Contessa. He was a 7 to 1 shot, and was well ridden by Rose. The latter is a very rough rider at times and in this race he sharply interfered with Vandusen on Bitter Root. The winner was entered to be sold for $400, but "Cass" Sloan said "$800" and George Foster let him go at that price.

The fourth, fifth and sixth races were very tame affairs. Crockett had only John Baker and Algarreta to beat in the fourth and she did that very easily. The filly was a 4 to 5 favorite and Nutt rode her. He trailed in behind the other two to the stretch and then galloped over them as though they were tied.

The fifth was at six and one-half furlongs, and what Maceo did with Canova and Kensington was a caution. He was a staunch favorite at 11 to 10, and after waiting on Kensington and Canova to the stretch he passed them at will and won under gentle restraint.

There were thirteen in the last, a five-furlong scramble for two-year-olds, and In Debt heavily backed by handicapper Ed O'Malley at 15, 6 and 3 to 1, won very easily.

Over Jockey Everett being ruled off for his ride on Lord Zeni Wednesday, there was considerable talk around the grounds. It seems to be the opinion of many of the horsemen that the judges picked a very bad spot in which to land the boy. Still, they may possess some facts that have not been made public. That Lord Zeni ran his race is a certainty. He was trying to give Bishop Reed nine pounds, and both at their best, the latter is the better horse of the two. In the race that he beat Lord Zeni he equalled the track record, and at no part of the journey did Lord Zeni ever have a chance to get near him.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

racetrack with Chacornac, who won so decisively at Saratoga, and will doubtless be a great favorite in next Saturday's event. The best judges who saw him run at Saratoga think he is an absolute winner of the race.

"Some of the fastest work that has ever been done for the Futurity since its inauguration was accomplished during the past week and yesterday. Musette covered six furlongs in 1:13. Previous to this work she breezed a mile in 1:43 very handily. This is really phenomenal for a two-year-old at this time of the year, and especially for a filly. William Hayward, who trains her, thinks her the fastest filly he has ever seen.

"J. J. Hyland's Brigadier, by Rayon d'Or—St.
Bridget, has done fine work. He covered a mile yesterday in 1:44 with weight up. Brigadier has been reserved for the Futurity, and has all the maiden allowances. Fred Burlew's Tristan Belle has been doing fine work at Gravesend. She covered six furlongs in 1:15 very handily. This was grand work over the Gravesend course in its present condition.
Green B. Morris' Modrine has also done well at the Gravesend course, working a mile in 1:46. Pupil, in the same stable, is not a candidate, and the stable will rely on Modrine.

"Gideon & Daly have decided not to start their colt, His Royal Highness. With David Garrick he was handicapped at 134 pounds, and the owners have decided to withdraw him. They will rely on Erwin, a maiden colt. Erwin has run several times this season, but without success. Pierre Lorillard's David Garrick, who is said to be a certain starter, will carry the top weight, 134 pounds, next Saturday."

Tony Licalzi's horses are to be sold in the paddock at Harlem Saturday. Tony has long been a familiar figure in Chicago racing affairs and from the days of eccentric Ormie down to date has always had a good horse or two in hand. In the lot to be sold Saturday are three good ones, as Chicago people who have seen Al Fresco, Donna Rita and Lady Ellerslie II
speed first past the judges in many a fast race can testify. In the course of his racing last year and this Al Fresco has beaten such horses
as Candleblack, Traverser, Tenby, Goodrich,
The Roman, The Devil, Great Bend, Mizpah, Jolly Roger, Clay Poynter, Myth, Hobart and many other speedy ones. He is a good handicap horse anywhere and in any company. Donna Rita is one of the best known of western race mares and a prize for any one, whether for racing or for a grandly bred brood mare. Imp, Carnero, Paul Griggs, Dr. Sheppard, Dunois, David, Eddie Burke and others as noted have had to surrender to her great speed in various races. Lady Ellerslie II. has often demonstrated her right to a front place in the ranks of the fastest sprinters of the day. Besides these, Sirdar, Galileo, Contessa, Rosolia, Hop Scotch and Nailer have all taken their places in the list of winning racehorses and are ready to win again for new owners. Tony's sale will no doubt be a success, for the effectual reason that his horses are of the order owners desire—horses that can win.

M. J. Maloney, owner of Populist, was not ruled off at Saratoga as stated, but allowed to go free, as the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association did not think he was implicated in the job in the race. C. W. Penniston, owner of Mr.
Dunlap, has asked the stewards for a reopening of the case and to hear his story. His request will probably be granted.

Winner—B. g. by Hinyar—Miss Austine.
Off at the first break to a fair start. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive. George H. Ketcham came from behind like a gentleman. He ran a much better race than he did when last out. Bitter Root experienced all kinds of bad racing luck. Rose jammed Vandusen into the fence and almost threw him. As the race was run there is not a doubt but that Bitter Root was the best. However, he was very lucky to be so close up as he was, considering the bad racing luck that he had. Contessa finished very strongly. Booker had Lovable in and out at all over the racetrack. Mocorito had fine speed, but tired when the pinch came. The same applies to Al Lone and Brightie S. The winner was run up $200 over his entered price of $400 and bought by Cass Sloan.

George H. Ketcham, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Bitter Root, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Contessa, show, evens. Lovable, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Lena Oliver.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily. The next three were driving to the limit. Sam Fullen is a colt of fair class and he won as he pleased. Macie Maree ran a creditable race. She is a fairly good filly, but that is all. Mark Man of Honor when in where he belongs. He ran a good race. Dramburg had all the bad luck in the race. He was bumped about and interfered with often. Chief Farrell made a strong bid on the stretch turn, but died away again at the finish.

Overweights—A Winner, 3 pounds.
Sam Fullen, place, out. Macie Maree, place, 4 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Man of Honor, show, 15 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Carita.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving to the limit. There was a lot of unnecessary noise raised over the judges' decision. Gold Fox, on the inside, undoubtedly won by a long neck. Bishop Reed was the best and only a bad ride beat him. Mitchell went to the whip at the head of the stretch and Bishop Reed, under it, bore out. This cost him much ground and Gold Fox, coming up on the inside, stole the race. Blue Lick ran a good race and can win when paced right. The race was always strictly between the first three.

Scratched—14201 Lord Zeni, 114; 14154 Hosi, 97.
Overweights—Pay the Fiddler, 2 pounds; Cordial, 4.
Gold Fox, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Bishop Reed, place, out. Blue Lick, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Linden—Crotchet.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily. The other two were driving. Weights and everything considered, Crockett was in a soft spot. She was far the best ridden of the trio, and came away on call in the stretch. She is a good filly over a distance and especially under light weight. John Baker got the place simply because he was a better stayer than Algareta. Beauchamp, on the latter, used miserable judgment. He made his run entirely to soon. This naturally took the run out of the filly and she had nothing left to finish with.

Crocket, place, out. John Baker, place, 1 to 4. Algareta, place, evens.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:21.

Winner—B. h. by Sir Dixon—Katy Did.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were doing their best. Maceo is in fine form and won without much urging. Nutt took his time during the early stages and never called upon the horse until the stretch was reached. Canova ran a fine race. Crowhurst perhaps made his run too soon; still he could not have beaten the winner in any kind of a race today. Rose Apple finished with a rush. The route may have been too far for Kensington, and besides she was badly ridden. Violet Parsons showed some speed, but Murat none at all. Throw the latter's race out.

Scratched—14175 Malaise, 90; (14178) Harry Thoburn, 99; 14152 Canova, 96.
Maceo, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Canova, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Rose Apple, show, 10 to 1. Kensington, place 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Br. g. by Blaze—Miss Alice.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next three were under keen pressure. In Debt got a flying start and was never in serious trouble. He could have won much farther off had Vitolo so chosen. Sorrel Rose ran a good race and finished very gamely under punishment. Azua had no excuse. Tilly Ann had. She was interfered with often and generally poorly handled. Ocone showed some speed but not much. Mitten seems to have staled. Irish Jewel will not be a maiden long.

Post 2 minutes. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving. It was a poor lot but Kickumbob appeared to be best. Joe McGhee closed fast in the last furlong. Ghec showed early speed but tired. Rockton ran green in the first part of the race but closed strongly. He will probably do better at his next effort. Aibonita's race was not a true one. The last two are of no account.

Scratched—(14218) Olinda, 104.
